CONDITION REPORT

The following describes the condition of the watch below, as it was when the watch was included in the catalogue: The Blueprint

Lot 12

Charles Frodsham - Double Impulse Chronometer

Condition: An exceptional example of the exceedingly rare Charles Frodsham Double Impulse Chronometer in white gold, presented in very good overall condition. The case and lugs are very well preserved, retaining their original proportions and showing only minimal signs of careful wear, including a few superficial marks on the lugs. The ceramic dial is in excellent condition, with no signs of tarnishing or material deterioration. All hallmarks, including the additional “Jubilee” hallmark, remain clearly defined. The movement is in excellent condition and was running at the time of cataloguing.

The condition and relative wear of the watch are faithfully represented in the photographs provided. We invite interested collectors to reach out to info@marteauandco.com with any questions or to request further images.
